

Mr. Diddams CxA, B.S., MS, Doctoral Candidate has over 30 years' experience as a Marine Officer and Program Manager on numerous high-profile projects e.g. $980M Petrochemical project, $2.9B in projects as Chief of Staff leading overseas operations in 7 countries, Vice President, Teng Engineering leading the overseas effort for over 400 bases. Mr. Diddams' focus on exceeding expectations and focus on integrity is the hallmark of CCCxA.

Mr. Bowen P.E., B.S., has 17 patents and leads CCCxA's engineering division with over 40 years' experience in electrical engineering, project management, and quality assurance. Bill oversaw the engineering process at G.E. before joining CCCxA helping set the standard for performance and efficiency in building design, commissioning, and value engineering. Mr. Bowen provides a quality standard to exceed all mandated standards and regulations in the engineering industry.

Mr. Benzuly P.E. B.S., MBA has over 40 years of experience in HVAC engineering and commissioning and, brings extensive knowledge base designing retrofit installations and new large-scale healthcare facilities and performing energy conservation studies. Experience also includes numerous institutional, hospitality and industrial facilities, as well as very large-scale commercial buildings including super tall buildings. .

Mr. Dronenburg P.E., B.S. M.S., joined to focus on emerging markets in the defense industry bringing 15 years of experience in defense-related classified and unclassified system sustainment and verification engineering, developmental and operational testing, and essential training development to CCCxA. Mr. Dronenburg is recognized at the highest levels in previous firms for outstanding support as a subject matter expert to complete the verification of several complex, unique, multi-million dollar national asset systems."

Mr. Todd Carroll P.E., C.E.M, B.S., recently joined CCCxA to fulfill a niche in several engineering categories including civil, structural, facility management, and the strategic implementation of Infrastructure Condition Assessment Programs (ICAP) for commercial and government entities. Mr. Carroll's experience includes serving as a NAVFAC Contracting Officer's Representative (COR), member of the Inspector General's team for ethical business practices and led the Corporate Preventative Maintenance Working Group (CPMWG) for NAVFAC.

Mr. Matt Fuller B.S., M.S., PMP, PgMP, led the business management system for the US Government with an annualized program of $5.2B. Mr. Fuller Provides technical ownership and responsibility for KBR's United States Government approved Estimating and Earned Value Management business systems. Responsible for managing the development of proposals up to and in excess of $8 billion over multiple years with an annualized program value of $5.2 billion. At CCCxA, Mr. Fuller manages the firm's contracts, projects plans, and compliance programs.

Dr. Allen Harper has served within the IT and Cybersecurity industry for more than 30 years. He is a retired Marine Officer and his last tour was in Western Iraq, where he was the IT/ Security Officer in 2007. He has experience performing hundreds of security assessments, in both the public and private sectors. He is a published author of 5 best-selling security books; most notably, he is the Lead author of the Gray Hat Hacking series of books. Dr. Harper is an expert in performing security and vulnerability analysis associated with IT security.

Nathaniel is a Marine Veteran and holds a Master of Science in Cybersecurity from Liberty University. Nathaniel holds the CISM, CISSP, PMP, GSEC, GSLC, and SMSP industry certifications and is a member of AFCEA, CSFI, and The American Legion. Nathaniel also serves as an industry sponsor for Active Valor, a combat veteran nonprofit dedicated to Gold Star families.

Sarah is a Marine Veteran and holds a Bachelor of Administration in Business Management from the University of Maryland University College. Sarah holds a CPRW certification and is a member of the PARW/CC and the NRWA. Sarah is also very active volunteering in her local community to stomp out hunger and poverty in America.